

Money for special projects

We also have money for a Golden Gift stipend to pursue a special project.

What it is and what it pays

The Golden Gift Special Stipend is a unique financial assistance that doesn't have to be repaid. It's a gift. Stipends can be as much as US $800.

What it's for (and what it's not)

The Special Stipend helps members develop their skills and meet specific educational and professional goals. It can't be used to attend DKG events or programs offering academic credit.

Who can apply

You are already qualified if you've been a Society member for at least two years on the date you apply. It's that simple.

Where to apply and deadlines

Go to our Web site and click Library, then Forms, Applications. Each year the deadline is always December 1 for the next award. You'll have a decision by February 15.

What we're looking for

Quality is important, so please give us a compelling proposal and make sure it's proofread. We'll also be looking at how active you are in the Society, your profession and your community.

Learn from prominent professors

Seminars are held at the Red McCombs School of Business, University of Texas at Austin. This prestigious school consistently ranks near the top of most international polls that recognize its excellent programs and professors.

2012 LEADERSHIP / MANAGEMENT SEMINAR SET FOR JULY 2-14

Apply now and attend for free.*

You don't want to miss this! Two weeks of leadership training from some of the best in the field. And better yet, it could all be free.*

What it is

An intense educational opportunity to learn how to become a leader from world-renowned experts in the field of management.

When it is and how long it lasts

In early July – two full weeks of learning from the experts! This opportunity comes along only once every two years, in the even-numbered years preceding the International Convention, so don't delay.

Where it is

Austin, the capital of Texas, is home to the largest public university in the U.S., with a campus population of more than 50,000 students and faculty. The business school consistently ranks near the top of most international polls and will be the site of the seminar.

What it costs

For successful applicants, the only out-of-pocket expense will be the registration fee (see below). Other than that, most expenses, including round-trip travel, will be paid by the Golden Gift Fund.

* Actual cost is limited to a one-time registration fee determined by the Golden Gift Fund Committee and required with submission of an acceptance letter by the approved applicant. The fee for 2010's seminar was US $500. We encourage our chapters and state organizations to help these valuable members cover this cost.

Don't get lost in the woods. Let the Leadership/Management Seminar show you how to take the steps to reach your goals.

Leaders of the future will have to be visionary and ... real communicators. These are things that women bring to leadership and executive positions, and it's ... incredibly valuable and incredibly in demand.

— Anita Borg, computer scientist
